The leading F&B trade show in Southeast Europe

FOOD EXPO has been constantly growing in both size and reputation, thus giving tangible shape to the aspirations of the food industry.

With the numbers of exhibitors and trade visitors skyrocketing with each passing year, FOOD EXPO 2019 will once again be filled with top buyers and of course fabulous foodstuff. The show will take place March 16-18, 2019, at the Metropolitan Expo in Athens, Greece. Approximately 1,350 companies will be presenting the broad spectrum of products, fields of application and services on an exhibition space spanning 50,000 m<sup>2</sup>, for buyers from the entirety of the F&B sector.

The fair that highlights Mediterranean & specialty foods

As always, FOOD EXPO 2019 will be the main platform for the international food industry interested in Greek and Mediterranean products and specialty foods, in general. Buyers from top names in retailing and foodservice will be out in force in search of new products, new trends, new vendors, and new connections to help meet record consumer demand for the categories.

Thousands key buyers from Greece & the world

Greece is a major trade center in S.E. Europe and the Middle East, and a gateway to the Balkan marketplace. As a result, FOOD EXPO 2019 will once again offer its exhibitors the opportunity to meet key players and decision makers from the Greek market. In addition, major buyers from the organized retail and wholesale from countries all across the globe will also be attending and participating in B2B meetings with exhibitors of their choice.

FOOD EXPO 2019 Forecast Key Figures

Optimist returns as Greece is about to exit the crisis

The Greek F&B sector remains a strong economic growth indicator in the aftermath of what has been a difficult period for the country.

Greek economy is growing. According to the latest projections, the growth rate in 2018 is estimated at 2.5%. In addition, tourism has rebounded with about 30 million tourists in 2017, while even more are expected in 2018; proof that Greece is shaping to become a significant player in the region, offering great opportunities for investments and business ventures.

As a result, the Greek food market can just be the perfect place to expand your business. The second strongest sector in Greek manufacturing can also offer access to the emerging markets of Southeast Europe and Eastern Mediterranean through the established production and sales network of the country's enterprises.
